Power generation

Ghani Glass Limited, Pakistan

Provides Continuous Operation Reliability and 16% cost saving

The Situation

Ghani Glass Limited is a company belonging to the Ghani Group, a reputed business house of South Asia based in Pakistan. The company features seven modern glass plants in Pakistan producing container glass, float glass and value added glass with annual capacity of over 1,570 TPD.

Ghani Glass Limited also is an independent power plant producer to meet the glass manufacturing plant electricity needs. The challenge is to ensure 9 Waukesha VHP L5794(LT) engines operate at optimum efficiency to provide stable power supply to ensure business continuity.

The Solution

HDAX® 7200 introduced to Ghani Glass Limited to lubricate Waukesha engines with 2 different sump size which oil drain interval expected by customer are 2,000 hours and 4,000 hours.

To achieve the best from power plant operations, it is extremely important to use high quality lubricants to optimize plant reliability & efficiency and after sales services, including timely product delivery (efficient supply chain capability), strong technical support, timely & reliable testing / reporting of used oil samples.

The Results

After 18 months of operating which uses HDAX® 7200, Chevron Pakistan team managed to deliver results that meet Ghani Glass Limited requirement. The power plant manager is satisfied with the performance delivered by HDAX® 7200.

" We are excited to share that we have achieved significant savings of about 16% after shifting to Caltex HDAX® 7200 Low Ash product and our daily lube oil consumption has also improved while lowering consumption by 8% ".
